Warm up to new tortillas

Mathew Ramsey

Sunday, July 19, 2009

Corn and flour tortillas are finally learning to play together, thanks to La Tortilla Factory's new Hand Made Style Corn Tortillas, which are a harmonious blend of both corn and wheat.

These hybrid tortillas offer all of the taste of fresh corn tortillas with all of the flex you'd expect from flour. What's that the old adage about having your cake and eating it, too?

La Tortilla Factory's Hand Made Style Corn Tortillas are available in three varieties - yellow corn, white corn and chipotle - at supermarkets like Safeway for about $2.49 per package of 8 tortillas.
